APPELLANT'S CONSENTED-TO MOTION FOR ENLARGEMENT OF TIME WITHIN WHICH TO FILE INITIAL BRIEF

NOW COMES Appellant to respectfully request a thirty-day extension—until on or before May 15, 2019—of the deadline to file its initial brief, which is currently due April 15, 2019.

Appellant's legal team, comprised of representatives from three different firms/entities, have been besieged with litigation and administrative deadlines, as well as individual travel and even new child-care responsibilities. Additional time is needed to coordinate within the team to finalize the brief. It is not anticipated nor planned that any further extensions will be sought.

Counsel for the Appellees were contacted and all graciously consented to this Motion. The granting of this Motion shall not result in the continuance of any hearing, the occurrence of which has not yet been scheduled.

Date: April 11, 2019

Respectfully submitted,
